MATCH FORMATS

JACQUES LEGLISE TROPHY

The Jacques Leglise Trophy is an annual International Match played between two selected teams of amateur boy golfers representing Great Britain & Ireland and the Continent of Europe. Each team consists of ten players and the Match is played over two consecutive days with four morning foursomes followed each afternoon by eight singles. Selection of the Great Britain & Ireland Team is carried out by the Selection Committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club. The European Golf Association select the Continent of Europe Team.

In recent years the Jacques Leglise Trophy Match has been played annually over one day on the Saturday preceding the Boys Championship. Starting this year the Match will be played annually over two days in late August at a different venue to the Boys Championship on a home and away basis.

ST ANDREWS TROPHY

The St Andrews Trophy is a biennial International Match played between two selected teams of amateur golfers representing Great Britain & Ireland and the Continent of Europe. Each team consists of nine players and the Match is played over two consecutive days with four morning foursomes followed each afternoon by eight singles. Selection of the Great Britain & Ireland Team is carried out by the Selection Committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club. The European Golf Association select the Continent of Europe Team.
